

KIRURGVECKAN 2025/ SWEDISH SURGICAL WEEK 2025 IN LINKÖPING

18-22 AUGUST 2025 | LINKÖPING KONSERT & KONGRESS

Invitation to become a sponsor and exhibitor at Kirurgveckan 2025

Welcome to participate as an exhibitor and sponsor at Kirurgveckan 2025

Now it's time for Linköping to be the host for Kirurgveckan again. The last time we were here was in 2015.

As organizers of Kirurgveckan we will as always do our outmost to create a highly interesting seminar program with topical themes within several different surgical disciplines and also present education and programs with overall questions, relevant to all that have surgery as their specialty.

As usual we will invite surgeons as well as specialist nurses, administrators etc. to participate in Kirurgveckan. The local organizing committee is once again planning a great social program with mingle and banquet with a unique touch of Linköping!

Linköping is an appreciated host destination for large medical meetings since there is a strong support from the local hospital and a very convenient geographical location right in between several large regions with good public transport and the E4 highway for those travelling by car.

Kirurgveckan has always been backed up very well by the industry, which is of great importance to us organizers as we want to continue to develop the meeting place for Swedish surgeons and their suppliers through exhibitions and sponsor partnerships.

In delegate surveys our members express a clear positive attitude towards being able to meet exhibitors and sponsors at Kirurgveckan and we as organizers encourage them actively to take part of the industry news showcased at the event.

A warm welcome to participate in Kirurgveckan 2025 in Linköping!

About Kirurgveckan – Swedish Surgical Week

The congress has been arranged annually by the Swedish Surgical Society since the last century and is a reputable event gathering surgeons and specialist nurses from all specialties within the field. Each year 1,200-1,500 specialist doctors, registrars and nurses participate in Kirurgveckan, which is arranged in a new Swedish city each year. The Swedish Surgical Society has around 1,800 members, most of which are specialist doctors. Around half of them visit Kirurgveckan each year in order to develop skills, see and hear about product news and meet their colleagues. Furthermore, around 50-60 companies with surgical products participate as exhibitors and sponsors.

Linköping Konsert & Kongress is the perfect venue for Kirurgveckan

LKK is located very central just minutes away from hotels and restaurants. It's a modern congress building with premises well suited for meetings as well as exhibitors. The exhibition and seminar rooms are on the same floor. Lunch and coffee is served in or close to the exhibition area. The food is top class and gets repeated top ratings from organizers and guests.

Sponsor the Swedish Surgical Week!

Sponsors will get great visibility in and get to be a part of the scientific program. As a sponsor you will also get extra exposure ahead of the event and distinct visibility at the venue during the event. We offer different levels of sponsorship
